1. Background to PAIA

- 1.1 PAIA was enacted, as contained in the Act's Preamble, on 3 February 2000 to give effect to the constitutional right of access to information as contained in section 32, Chapter B (Bill of Rights) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996.
- 1.2 In terms of section 51 of PAIA, all private bodies (juristic and natural persons) are required to compile an Information Manual.
- 1.3 Where a request is made in terms of the PAIA Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and/or regulatory requirements, except where the PAIA Act expressly provides that the information may be adopted when requesting information from a public or private body.

2. Details of Organisation (Collecting Party) this Memorandum applies to:

- 2.1 This memorandum was prepared in accordance with section 51 of the PAIA and to conjunctively address requirements of the POPI Act for the Organisation.
- 2.2 The collecting party is a contract manufacturer for pharmaceutical products specialising in complementary medicines for the commercial, wholesale and e-commerce sectors.
- 2.3 This memorandum is available at MJ Labs physical address at 354 Derdepoort Road, Silverton, 0044, as well as digitally available on www.mjlabs.co.za

3. Purpose

- 3.1 The purpose of PAIA is to promote the right of access to information, to generate a culture of transparency and accountability within the Organisation (the Collecting Party), by acknowledging and promoting the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection information rights and privacy, and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.2 In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

3.3 Section 9 of PAIA, read in conjunction with section 36(2) of the Constitution, 1996 provides the following:<sup>3</sup>

3.3.1 All rights may be justifiably limited in accordance with a law of general application.

3.3.2 That the right to privacy, specifically, may be limited to reasonable protection only where a party is legally obligated to disclose certain information and infringe the relevant right.

3.3.3 That commercial confidentiality remains a due consideration.

3.3.4 That the right is limitable in accordance with effective, efficient and good governance.

3.4 The right to privacy and the protection of information, as mandated by PAIA is also subject to a balancing exercise with any other relevant rights as contained in Chapter 2 of the Constitution.

4. Contact Details in respect of section 51(1)(a) of PAIA

9. Details for Requests of Information pertaining to this Organisation (the Collecting Party)

- 9.1 The Requester, as defined in the PAIA Act, must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the PAIA Act relating to the request for access to a record, as contained in Chapter 3 (Manner of Access), sections 53-61.
- 9.2 The Requester must complete the prescribed form and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address.
- 9.3 The form can be obtained from the Information Regulator's website: www.justice.gov.za/inforeg (Form C - Request for access to record of Private Body).

- 9.4 The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify:
  - 9.4.1 The record or records requested; and
  - 9.4.2 the identity of the requester.
- 9.5 The Requester should indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address or fax number of the Requester in the Republic of South Africa.
- 9.6 The Requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The Requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right. The prerequisites are contained in section 53(2)(d) of PAIA.
- 9.7 The Organisation will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, unless the Requester has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
- 9.8 The Requester shall be advised whether access is granted or denied in writing. If, in addition, the Requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the Requester will be obliged to state which manner and the particulars required.
- 9.9 If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the Requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the Requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer, as contained in section 53(2)(f) of PAIA.
- 9.10 If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally, as contained in section 18(3)(a) of PAIA.
- 9.11 The Requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.
- 9.12 All information as listed in this clause 11 herein should be provided and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided.
- 9.13 The prescribed time periods will not commence until the Requester has furnished all the necessary and required information.
- 9.14 The Information Officer shall sever a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

10. Refusal of Access to Records

10.1 Grounds for Refusal of Access

- 10.1.1 A private body such as the Organisation is entitled to refuse a request for information, as contained in in Chapter 4 of PAIA, through sections 62-68, and subject to the mandatory disclosure of Information as contained in section 69-70 of PAIA.
- 10.1.2 The main grounds for the Organisation to refuse a request for information is as follows:
  - 10.1.2.1 Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person, as contained in section 63 of PAIA, or a juristic person, as contained in section 23 of POPIA, read with Chapter 4 of PAIA, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person.
  - 10.1.2.2 Mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, to comply with the provisions of POPIA, and PAIA.
  - 10.1.2.3 Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party as contained in section 64 of the PAIA if the record contains:
    - 10.1.2.3.1 Trade secrets of the third party;
    - 10.1.2.3.2 financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; or
    - 10.1.2.3.3 information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Organisation, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
  - 10.1.2.4 Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties, as contained in section 65 of PAIA if it is protected in terms of any agreement.
  - 10.1.2.5 Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property, as contained in section 66 of PAIA.
  - 10.1.2.6 Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings, as contained in section 67 of the PAIA.
  - 10.1.2.7 the commercial activities of a private body, such as the Organisation, as contained in section 68 of PAIA, which may include:
    - 10.1.2.7.1 Trade secrets of the Organisation;

- 10.1.2.7.2 Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Organisation;
- 10.1.2.7.3 Information which, if disclosed could put the Organisation at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- 10.1.2.7.4 A computer program which is owned by the Organisation, and which is protected by copyright; or
- 10.1.2.7.5 The research information the Organisation or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the Organisation, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage, as contained in section 69 of PAIA; or
- 10.1.2.8 Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.
- 10.1.3 All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.
- 10.1.4 If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the Requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record.
  - 10.1.4.1 Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the PAIA Act.
  - 10.1.4.2 If the record should later be found, the Requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the Requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.
- 11. Remedies Available upon the Condition that the Organisation refuses a Request for Information
  - 11.1 Internal Remedies
    - 11.1.1 The Organisation does not have internal appeal procedures, at present. The Organisation endeavours to amend the manual with this provision in the future on an ad-hoc basis.
    - 11.1.2 The decision made by the Information Officer is final.
    - 11.1.3 Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused and the Requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

MOBILE THERAPY CC T/A MJ LABS
(1999/014221/23)

- 11.2 External Remedies
- 11.2.1 A Requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, may apply to a Court for relief.
- 11.2.2 For purposes of PAIA, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development, and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate, as contained in Chapter 2 of PAIA.
- 12. Access to Information Held by the Organisation
- 12.1 Prerequisites for Access by Personal/Other Requester
- 12.1.1 Records held by the Organisation may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.
- 12.1.2 Requester is any person making a request for access to a record of the Organisation.
- 12.1.3 There are 2 (two) types of requesters:
  - 13.1.3.1 Personal Requester
  - 13.1.3.1.1 A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the Requester.
  - 13.1.3.1.2 The Organisation will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record regarding the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.
- 13.1.3.2 Other Requesters
- 13.1.3.2.1 This Requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.
- 13.1.3.2.2 In considering such a request, the Organisation will adhere to the provisions of the PAIA Act. Section 71 of the PAIA Act requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the Information.
- 13.2 The Organisation is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The Requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of the PAIA Act and as stipulated in Chapter 5: Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

14. Prescribed Fees for Access in terms of section 51(1)(f)

14.1 Fees Provided by the PAIA Act:

14.1.1 The PAIA Act provides for 2 (two) types of fees, namely:

14.1.1.1 a request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all Requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and

14.1.1.2 an access fee, which is paid by all Requesters if a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the Requester.

14.1.2 When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the Requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request, as contained in section 54(1) of PAIA.

14.1.3 If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the Requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

14.1.4 The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the Requester has paid the fees as indicated below.

14.1.5 A Requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.

14.1.6 If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the Requester.

15. Reproduction Fee

15.1 Where the Organisation has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question, which will be as may from time to time be determined by the Minister.

15.2 Request Fees

15.2.1 Where a Requester submits a request for access to information held by an institution on a person other than the Requester himself/herself, a request fee in the amount which will be determined by the Minister is payable up-front before the institution will further process the request received.

15.3 Access Fees

15.3.1 An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the PAIA Act or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of section 54(8) of the PAIA Act. The applicable access fees will be as may from time to time be determined by the Minister.

15.4 Deposits

15.4.1 Where the institution receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the Requester himself/herself and the Information Officer upon receipt of the request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more than 6 (six) hours, a deposit is payable by the Requester.

15.4.1 The amount of the deposit is equal to 1/3 (one third) of the amount of the applicable access fee.
